DR. WILEY GIVES PUBLIC ADVICE

WAARS PEOPLE NOT TO BECOME FOOD FADDISTS.

Tells Folks What to Eat and Combinations That Are Most Helpful

ARE BUILT FOR MIXED DIET.

"Don't turn food-freak because the things you like have risen in price."

"Don't boycott meat because steaks are expensive. If you do, you may get sick, because your teeth and your digestive apparatus were built for a mixed diet."

"Eat more canned goods; they are cheaper than ever before."

"If combinations continue to control the prices of food products the government may be obliged to enact anti-high-profit laws similar to those aimed against usury."

DR. HARVEY W. WILEY,
Chief of Bureau of Chemistry.

Washington, Feb. 3. (United Press)—Dr. Wiley's advice to the housekeeper in the present financial crisis brought about in the family purse by the high cost of living, is to abstain from worry and buy everything she has been buying—only not so much of it.

"A ten cent soup bone will flavor half a bushel of potatoes," said Dr. Wiley, "and will, if cooked right, taste just as good as a dollar steak.

With the addition of an onion, a carrot and a sprig of parsley, that soup bone can be made to produce enough good, nourishing soup for a big family. Then, after the soup is made, save a little of the fluid and boil it down in the kettle with the meat. Then you'll have a 'pot roast' which, if made right, will be fit to set before the president.

"Canned goods of all kinds are cheaper than ever before in our history. Beans and peas have not risen appreciably in price, and make the best food for man. Wheat flour at the price it is now selling is the cheapest food that can be bought, and corn meal hasn't changed in price for the last ten years.

"If the American cook would study the methods of the French cook, who uses up all the 'left overs,' you would not hear so much about the increased cost of living. The average American cook throws away or wastes enough to keep the ordinary French family going. Over there they save every scrap of fat and every crumb of bread, and convert them into appetizing dishes. They know how to make the most out of the cheaper cuts of meat. Over here the average cook turns up his or her nose at the coarser grades of meat and thinks that nothing is fit to eat unless it comes from the neighborhood of the tenderloin.

"Of course a great deal of the added cost in the price of meat products has come about as a result of combinations of dealers. The farmer is not getting much more for his cattle than he did ten or fifteen years ago. The government or the state will have to step in one of these days, if these combinations continue to increase the prices, and enact laws prohibiting dealers from making more than a certain amount of profit.

"This suggestion, of course, will be hailed with cries of 'paternalism.' Well, let it be paternalism, if you please. All government is paternal, when you come right down to brass tacks. If the government can enact laws declaring the amount of interest or profit a dealer in money shall make—like the statutes relating to usury—why should it not be justified in setting down the lines for the dealers in the necessities of life? The men who rob the market basket are more criminal than the men who extort money on illegal loans.

"A limit of say fifteen or twenty per cent net profit a year might be set down for the butcher and grocer. The dry goods merchant or the con-

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 3.—Although it required fully four weeks of vigilant search on the part of members of the general assembly, who do not live in cities and who have not lined up with the whisky crowd, in the senate and house, to discover the "real joker" in the senate rules, the discovery has been made in rule 50, paragraph 2, as follows:

"The rules committee is further authorized and shall have the right at any time, to call from any other committee or committees any bill or resolution in their hands and have the same advanced to the reading to which the same may be entitled, and a report or expression of opinion from the committee on rules on any such bill, resolution or measure may be and shall be in lieu of the report of any committee having had under consideration any such bill, resolution or measure."

The Senate, therefore, is absolutely in the hands of the Senate Committee on Rules, for the committee has the power to take from any other committee a bill that has been referred to it and report the bill favorably or unfavorably, or without expression, if reported unfavorably, then as paragraph 9 of rule 43:

"When a bill or resolution has been reported to the Senate by a committee having same under consideration with an expression of opinion that the same should not pass, then in that event the same shall not be advanced to its third reading unless done by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to the Senate."

Thus it requires a two-thirds vote of the Senate, and if taken out of the hands of the committee and not reported, then such action postponed indefinitely further consideration of the bill.

The following were the makers of the Senate rules and the men who named the Senate Committee:

Conn Linn, president pro tem of Senate.

Thomas A. Combs, chairman of Democratic Caucus.

The members of the committee on rules are:

Conn Linn, chairman, Murray.

Thomas A. Combs, Lexington.

Mark Ryan, Louisville.

L. W. Arnett, Covington.

G. T. Wyatt, Logan County.

Herman Newcomb, Louisville.

J. F. Bosworth, Middlesboro.

WOULD DROP DYNAMITE ON TOWN OF MANAGUA.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 3.—The destruction of Managua with 50 pounds of nitro-glycerine dropped from a dirigible will be the Nicaraguan war for the revolutionists, unless the plans of Harry McGill, the Ohio aviator, miscarry. McGill, who announced today that all arrangements are satisfactorily completed between himself and Estrada for making the McGill "aero squad," tells how it will happen. "It will be a simple matter," said he, "according to my calculations. I know I can carry 50 pounds extra weight with ease, dropping it from the height of 1,000 feet and getting away without being detected. I will do it at night and I don't doubt that it will be the easiest money I have ever earned."

The committee was interested immediately, and crowded around the doctor as he proceeded to test the eggs he had brought.

"That's a fine, fresh egg," he observed, as one of the specimens dropped plump to the bottom.

"How do you know it is fresh?" asked Congressman Moore (Rep. Pa.).

"Because one of my inspectors was at the hen house this morning and saw it laid," replied the doctor triumphantly.

News of Theatres

At the Star.

The last half of the week at the Star theater commences today, the vaudeville bill is followed by the Bon-Air Trio, acrobatic pantomimists, introducing all of the best tricks known to the acrobatic world, accomplishing all kinds of twisting and lofty tumbling, mingled in the gynastic feats is a vein of comedy which makes the act enjoyable and relieves the monotony which too often accompanies straight acrobatic acts, an original finish, introducing electrical effects of varicolored lights.

Emmett Martin, a black face artist, if as good as his press notices proclaim him, should keep the audience laughing from the jump.

Mitchell and Willard have a good comedy sketch full of comedy, singing and funny talk. The Nashville Banner gave this act very high praise while they were playing at the Fifth Avenue theater last week.

Patricia Sage will do this. Just get a 50c bottle today; relief will come immediately, and if at the end of two weeks your Itching scalp and dandruff have not disappeared, you can have your money back.

MISSION SPIRIT STIRS LAYMEN

HEAR PRESENTATION OF FOREIGN PROBLEM.

Some Action is Expected—What Increase in the Offerings Will Be Pledged Important Question.

THE CONVENTION IS OPENED

Louisville, Feb. 3.—Stirred by the mission spirit that has accumulated here for weeks and was augmented by the big interdenominational banquet at the Galt House, delegates from Protestant churches in the city and state and southern Indiana, assembled in the Warren Memorial Presbyterian church to consider questions involving the obligation of the churches here in the laymen's movement to evangelize the world in this generation.

The last annual Protestant church budget in Louisville was $470,526.27. Of this amount $168,475.88 was for home work and only $32,431.44 for foreign work, or only 74 cents per capita a year to carry the gospel to other countries. Shall the Protestant churches of Louisville, with their 45,000 communicants, pledge themselves, through their delegates to give, during the coming year, twice what they gave last year? Shall they, at least, increase their offerings for foreign missions by 50 or 75 per cent?

Questions That Are Presented.
These are questions which are being thought of today by church workers while they listen to earnest and impressive presentations of the needs of the foreign fields by noted missionaries from many sections of the world, and modern methods for meeting them, and which they will consider at 6 o'clock this afternoon, when the local co-operating committee meets at supper with national leaders and determines upon the for-

PROVEN ECZEMA CURE

For several years we have announced, with our recommendation, that we had found a positive cure for eczema; a simple skin wash, oil of wintergreen compounded with other healing ingredients.

Yet we know there are people right in this town who have eczema, and still have never tried this remedy.

We have, therefore, arranged with the D. D. D. Laboratories of Chicago for a special offer of a trial bottle at 25 cents instead of the $1.00 bottle as regularly sold. Be sure of the correct name: D. D. D. Prescription.

We offer this trial bottle with our recommendation and assurance that just as soon as the patient washes his itching skin, this mild liquid will take the itch away instantly.

esign missionary policy to recommend to the convention.

Survey of the Field.

The morning session was selected for a survey of the world-field by experienced workers in the orient, several of whom arrived in the city from Cincinnati, where the last convention was held, and who were present at the banquet at the Galt House. Among them were the Rev. J. T. McNaughton, Tuskegee; the Rev. J. C. Robbins, the Philippines; Dr. J. L. Dearling, Japan; the Rev. M. D. Eubank, China; J. T. Headland, Pekin.

What would be done at the opening session of the convention was appropriately summed up in the words of Bishop Charles E. Woodcock at the banquet. He said that men from the corners of the earth would crowd messages of a generation into 15 minutes each. He declared that the opportunity was an exceptional one for the churchmen of Louisville.

Following the continued applause after J. Campbell White's address, Bishop Woodcock said: "Don't feel because you have heard it, that you have done it," and urged all to attend the sessions of the convention.

Nearly a thousand delegates, representing many churches, had registered and others were expected.

Mr. White said at the banquet that the 74 cents could be increased to $1.58 in 30 days, if the propaganda of the national campaign should be adopted here, and with these words fresh in their minds, scores of the most aggressive church men are working for the success of the convention and its objects.

Many Men Leave Their Business.

The first door of the auditorium was comfortably filled at the morning session. The presence of only a few women indicated that it was essentially a laymen's convention. One churchman, who has been prominently identified here for years with important religious gatherings, said he had never seen so many business men give up their business during the forenoon to attend a missionary meeting. He stated that he regarded this as one of the best signs of a successful convention.

Large charts and maps illustrative of the work to be done in foreign fields are suspended in many places from the balcony of the church, and tracts and pamphlets are to be had on every hand. The charts and maps were used by speakers, who told of the needs of the mission fields and the opportunities and responsibilities of church members.

HOUSE PASSES

NEW CITY BILL

CITIES UNDER 200,000 CAN HAVE COMMISSION.

Now Goes to Senate for Conference, That Body Having Passed a Similar Measure.

SOME OF BILL'S PROVISIONS

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 3.—The bill giving cities under 200,000 population the power to adopt the commission form of government was passed by the house by a vote of 87 to 11. The bill lacked the necessary two-thirds vote of the house, 102 votes, to be passed with the emergency clause and consequently the law will not go into effect until July 1.

The bill was passed with the clause which provides that an election of commissioners should be had within 90 days after the commission form of government has been adopted by a city, requires 70 per cent of the votes of an election to recall the commissioners and provides that if the measure is lost it cannot again be voted on for two years. The bill now goes to the senate for conference. The senate has passed a bill with the house amendments, principal of which are the ones noted above. The vote on the bill was as follows:

Aye—Abbey, Adkins, Allison, Bar-dill, Black, Briscoe, Burgett, Burns, Bush, Butts, Campbell, Carter, Cer-nak, Chipperfield, Cliffe, Duley, Don-mah, Durfee, Espy, Etherton, Fahy, Finley, Flagg, Foster, Fulton, Gall-dan, Gorman, Grace, Gray, J. Wilson, Wright, York.

The house also, by a vote of 126 ayes to no nays, passed the employers' liability bill, urged by the labor organizations of the state, and which provides that a contract between an employee and a corporation or other employers in which the employee agrees not to sue the employer shall not be a bar to proceedings in the courts, for damages in the case of death or injury. The house decided not to meet again for business until Tuesday, February 15. There is no quorum of the senate here this week.

DR. T. M. GRAVES PASSES AWAY.

His Death Occasions Deep Sorrow in Many Murray Homes.

Murray, Ky., Feb. 3.—The news of the death of Dr. Thomas M. Graves Saturday afternoon, though not unexpected, brought sadness to the hearts of his wide circle of friends in Murray and in the county. Dr. Graves was the oldest physician in the county, having been in the practice since he was nineteen years old. He was born in Bedford county, Tennessee, in 1824, making his age nearly 86 years. He moved to this country more than fifty years ago, and the county had no better citizen. His life was filled with goodness to his fellowman, and his charity work was unbounded. He was member of the Presbyterian church and a Royal Arch Mason.

He is survived by his wife and six children, Albert, of Texas; Mrs. Taz

Danderine

Grows Hair
and we can PROVE IT!

DANDERINE is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

A lady from St. Paul writes in substance, as follows:

"When I began using Danderine my hair would not come to my mind and now it is as black as my hair."

Another from Newark, N. J.

"I have been using Danderine regularly. When I first started to use it I did not know how to prove it, but now my hair is the most beautiful long and thick hair anyone would want to have."

NOW at all drugists in three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

Danderine enjoys a greater sale than any other one preparation regardless of kind or brand, and it has a much greater sale than all of the other hair preparations in the world combined.

Free acts, we will send a large sample free to any person who sends us their name and address in silver or stamp to pay postage.

Daily Thought.
The darkest shadows of life are those which a man himself makes when he stands in his own light.—Lord Avebury.

The state senate defeated the druggists bill, prohibiting the sale of 'dope.'

There is something even more cowardly than the killing of Ed Carmack in the efforts of his slayers to escape the consequences of it.

It was a groundhog case in the Second district. The shadow of W. O. Stanley continues to hover over the Pennyville, more's the pity.

Shelton M. Saufley has purchased the Stanford Journal, and will assume the management as soon as the legislature adjourns. Mr. Saufley is one of the most capable newspaper men in the state and a genial gentleman. The Interor Journal falls into good hands. Mr. Saufley has been in Frankfort a number of years and is well equipped for his editorial duties by his knowledge of state affairs and wide acquaintance.

State Superintendent Crabbe has sent out an appeal to educators and publishers over the state for assistance in preventing the possible repeal of the new school law, which was enacted two years ago. This is the law, reorganizing the county boards and introducing modern features in the state educational system. There are few things this legislature could do more damaging to the commonwealth than the repeal of the law.

REFORM THE ALMSHOUSE.
The new rules of the county sanatorium are fine; but if the present management has not enforced morality, prohibited swearing and abuse of inmates, compelled cleanliness and observed the behests of common humanity out there, what we need is not so much new rules as new management. If he has been doing these things, the new rules do him injustice. We know that Mrs. Caroline Bartlett Crane praised the building and condemned the administration of the almshouse. We know that recently, after considerable scandal was evoked, an employee was discharged, who was openly engaging in the most immoral practices out there. Meeting and passing resolutions and adopting rules, that a competent administration would observe as a matter of course, will not effect reform at the institution.

KENTUCKY POLITICS

What effect the action of the Kentucky state senate, in referring the county unit bill to the committee, will have on the next general election, we can only guess; but it did bring out strongly some political differences of statewide importance. The bill was referred by the Republican Lieutenant Governor to the Kentucky statutes committee, as desired by the friends of the bill. The Democratic majority refused to sustain the Lieutenant Governor, and on appeal from the chair, took the bill away from that committee and submitted it to the committee on public morals, which is packed against the bill. When a committee reports unfavorably it requires a two-thirds vote to get it before the senate for passage.

That is the end of the two county unit bills in the senate, but a careful perusal of Democratic state exchanges, disclose how seriously this question is taken in some sections.

At Frankfort former Governor J. C. W. Beckham is editing a paper openly hostile to the Louisville leaders, who are in control of the legislature; at Cadiz General Lawrence is editing a Beckham paper; at Clinton the Gazette is on the same side; at Murray the same state of feeling exists, and throughout central and eastern Kentucky local Democratic papers are taking the Beckham stand of the fight, disregarding state finances, the public school question, taxation and everything else, but the single issue of the county unit.

Thus are the lines being drawn for a fight for control of the next Democratic state convention with the county unit or prohibition the issue between the factions. Beckham, and, it may be, former Senator McCreary will have the county unit or the prohibition end of the argument and the leaders of the legislature the other side.

It makes little difference, perhaps, which wins. If the present bitterness grows as it has been growing, a breach will be formed that will be hard to heal between the nomination and the election. If the prohibitionists carry the convention, it hardly stands to reason that the liberal element of the party will loyally support the organization at the polls; and if the liberal element wins by methods that do not appeal to the fair play of the prohibitionists, loyalty will be at a low ebb in the defeated camp.

Popular at Fulton.

According to the statement of Frank Fisher, postmaster at Paducah and West Kentucky's most prominent Republican politician, Robert Beadles, in this city, will succeed his father, T. F. Beadles, as postmaster at Fulton, the appointment to be sent to the senate very soon by President Taft. It is needless to say that appointment of Mr. Beadles as postmaster here will meet with the instant approval of the hundreds of citizens here who have been so courteously and promptly accommodated at the local mail dispensary. Through long experience Mr. Beadles is splendidly qualified for the important office and merits the appointment by his capability if from no other single reason.—Fulton Leader.

Loyal Farmers' Union Men.
Our congressional delegates left Paducah last week for Washington, and will have made their return probably before these lines reach you. The good this will accomplish remains to be seen and felt later, although we are proud we had such men as Chairman Grady and Secretary Tapp to send on such an important mission as the one here referred to. In Chairman Grady we have the noblest and most loyal person or as loyal as any, to the cause that can be found anywhere in the nation. He is a man of sound and broad views, while Brother Tapp is a practical farmer and a man who stands high in the estimation of the best people of Ballard, McCracken and Webster counties.—Liberty (F. W. La Center.)

Mothers' Bill.
Among the many excellent bills before the legislature in whose passage women are interested is one especially vital to women who understand its import. It is not generally known that the Kentucky statutes still comprise the law giving the father of the child the right of guardianship over it, disregarding what seems to the non-legal mind, an equal right of the mother. Not long ago, in Illinois, a mother stumbled upon her child by accident, from whom she had been separated for 16 years by the working of a law similar to ours which gave the child upon divorce of the parents into the guardianship of the father, in spite of his obvious unfitness.

Massachusetts secured a co-guardianship law, after a horrible tragedy, when a mother, driven insane by the threats of the father to sell the child away from her, as he had the legal right to do, killed herself and five children, and though no such tragedies have occurred in Kentucky to point the injustice of a law which discards the rights of the mother, it is well to guard against such a possibility by the passage of a co-guardianship law.

Girl Whistles for Health.
"Don't whistle, please," begged the girl who prided herself on not having nerves but confessed to a dislike for the penetrating sound that often came unthinkingly from her sister's lips.

"But I like to whistle," remonstrated the other girl, "and besides it shows I am not a victim of that dreaded ailment, neurasthenia. Now, you couldn't for the life of you stand up straight and whistle a merry tune. I'll bet anything you cannot even get an imitation of a whistle from your lips."

And she couldn't. Both tried it and she found that only the whistler was free from the symptoms of neurasthenia as given not long ago by a noted physician who said women who can stand erect, head held up and eyes closed and then whistle was perfectly normal so far as their nerves were concerned.

And the whistling girl went on to explain what an excellent physical exercise the annoying habit is.

"You learn to breathe properly when you whistle," she said, "and you acquire a control of the breath that nothing else except singing will give. You learn to breathe deeply, filling the very lowest sections of the lungs, and you learn the trick of nasal breathing, which is something American girls have not learned as thoroughly as they should.

"There is all the difference in the world in the way you breathe. Watch yourself some time when you have not been trying to follow a set of rules, and if you are not a proper breather you will notice that you are not drawing in the breath beyond the upper section of the lungs. Persons who lose their breath quickly when running or climbing steps will overcome this defect if they will practice whistling."—New York Herald.

MAN RESPONSIBLE FOR ONE SHOOTING IS IDENTIFIED.

IN "MAD MAGICIAN" DENNISON NEW YORK POLICE BELIEVE THEY HAVE Caught Person.

New York, Feb. 3.—Herbert J. Dennison, a former inmate of an asylum, and styled by the police, the "mad magician," was positively identified by John Fredericks, a young pressman, as the bearded man who shot him in the Bronx on January 8.

The shooting occurred within two miles of the place where Robert Lucas and Arthur Shibley, 6-year-old boys, were fatally shot four days later. Dennison is also held as a suspect for these crimes, and his identification by Fredericks is the first definite step toward the solution of the shootings.

Fredericks had been in a hospital until Saturday, with bullet wounds in his shoulder, right arm and left leg. He visited the police prison, where he picked Dennison out of a line of 18 men as his assailant.

The same caliber bullets that wounded Fredericks killed the two boys, and the police are making further investigations, hoping to connect the prisoner with all three crimes.

S.S.S. RIDS THE SYSTEM OF CATARRH

Catarrh comes as a result of impurities and morbid matter in the circulation, and is a disease that only attacks mucous membrane. The entire inner portion of the body is lined with a delicate skin or covering of soft, sensitive flesh. Thousands of tiny blood vessels are interlaced throughout this mucous surface, and it is through these that the inner membrane receives its nourishment and is kept in healthful condition. When, however, the blood becomes infected with catarrhal impurities the tissues become diseased and Catarrh gets a foothold in the system. The early stages of Catarrh are characterized by such symptoms as a tight, stuffy feeling in the head, watery eyes, buzzing noises in the ears, with partial deafness and often difficult breathing and a hoarseness. These are merely symptoms, and while sprays, inhalations and other local treatment may temporarily relieve them, Catarrh cannot be cured until the blood is free of the exciting cause. S.S.S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter. It goes down into the circulation and attacks the disease at its head, and removes every particle of the catarrhal impurity. Then the mucous linings are all supplied with fresh, pure blood, and allowed to heal, instead of being kept in a constant state of irritation by the catarrhal matter. Special book on Catarrh and any medical advice free.

BOND ISSUE

LIMITED TO HALF MILLION, SAYS ATTORNEY GENERAL

Was Requested by Executive So That Legislature Might Have Information.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 3.—Although the debt of the state of Kentucky is now much greater than $500,000, Attorney General James Breathitt gave Governor Wilson his written opinion in which he states that the general assembly has not the constitutional power to issue any greater amount of bonds than $500,000 or create any greater debt although the debt may be for the purpose of paying a larger deficit. Attorney General Breathitt, however, says that under Section 49 of the constitution that the general assembly has the power to create a bonded indebtedness of $500,000.

The opinion of Attorney General Breathitt was given to Governor Wilson in answer to an inquiry as to whether or not the legislature could create a $500,000 debt. In reply to this inquiry Attorney General Breathitt quotes sections 49 and 50 of the constitution and hands down the following opinion which Governor Wilson regards very important:

Gen. Breathitt's Say.

"It is apparent, from a careful examination of the auditor's reports for several years back, that the expenses of running the state government, maintaining its charities, paying its normal school appropriations, paying for the new capitol, and other extraordinary and usual expenses; that the revenues of the state derived from all sources have proven to be and are now insufficient to pay the obligations and undertakings of the state. It may be conceded that there is now a deficit in the revenues of the state amounting to more than a million dollars. This large deficit has been occasioned by the failure of the revenue to be sufficient to meet the expenses and thereby creat-

KENTUCKY JOINS VIRGINIA.

Wants Money From Uncle Sam for Ceded Lands.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 2.—Started by the suggestion from a Virginia state official, Kentucky probably will join its voice to that of Virginia in demanding reimbursement from the federal government for the land ceded for the creation of the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and a part of Minnesota. It is claimed that the condition of the grant has been violated, that the parceled land was put to local purposes instead of being "for the use and benefit of the other states of the federation," as was originally intended.

Kentucky was a part of the Old Dominion at the time, as was West Virginia. The information reaching here is that each of the states would be entitled to about one-sixth of the amount claimed by Virginia, or $2,000,000.

HENDRICK TALKS OF PARIS SEWERS

EXPLAINS WHY HAVOC HAS BEEN SO WIDESPREAD.

Magnificent System of Conduits—Water Once Entering Will Flow in Every Direction.

THE DAMAGE IS $100,000,000.

Mr. Calvin W. Hendrick, chief engineer to the sewerage commission of the city of Baltimore, says the Baltimore American, says he has been through the sewers or conduits of Paris. He inspected the two years ago while in Europe, gathering information to aid him in his work on the great undertaking in Baltimore. He said that the conduits in Paris are among the great showplaces in that city. They are open to visitors two days in each week, and guides and interpreters go through them with large delegations of men and women.

Mr. Hendrick was allowed the privilege of making a special inspection of the conduits, as he was not in Paris on one of the public visiting days. Engineers and interpreters were detailed to accompany him, and he thereby got a better idea of the great conduits than visitors generally are enabled to gather from their hurried inspections. Speaking of the conduits and the effect of the flood on the city of Paris, Mr. Hendrick said:

"There is probably no city in existence that would feel an inundation of this kind more than Paris, on account of having resorted to underground construction to the extent she has, and also on account of her topography, a large territory adjacent to the Seine being comparatively level. These two conditions make an overflow far-reaching.

"The engineers of Paris are ahead of any other city in providing underground passages for their sewers, electrical conduits and pipes of all kinds. This has been accomplished by building large subways in connection with the sewer construction, the sewers being in the invert, with offset passages on either side, over which pipes are fastened on brackets, enabling the workmen to inspect the pipes at any time without having to excavate the streets. These extend for miles and miles in every direction, are lighted by electricity and have a car spanning the sewer in the invert, some of which are provided with seats for the visitors to ride in. These, together with the passenger subways, make a perfect labyrinth of underground passages in very flat grades. The water once entering will flow in every direction, and as the water of the Seine is now in some cases above the banks of the river, these conduits are under pressure in the opposite direction from the natural flow, forcing the water of the river and the flow of the sewage out through various openings into the streets, making a great cesspool of the city.

"The Seine would never impress one as being capable of creating such havoc. To us in this country it would be a small river, only a few hundred feet wide. At the time of my visit it was a gay avenue of pleasure, far below the street surface, spanned by the most beautiful bridges in the world, with a greenward and lines of magnificent trees. It was, indeed, a beautiful sight to look upon.

"This calamity comes in the same class as a great conflagration or earthquake, a convolution of the elements that could not be provided for, and has to be met in the best way that human ingenuity can meet conditions of this kind. From all accounts the French people seem to be rising to the emergency in a heroic manner, and I feel sure the sympathy of the whole world is with them.

"The results will probably be appalling, not only to health, but to property. As the various underground passages are built adjacent to large buildings, there can be only one result—undermining. It is impossible to calculate the damage that will eventually come from the flooding, as the after-results will be far-reaching, such as future settling of buildings, injury to waterworks, gas plants, steam plants, private and public buildings, street railways, underground railways, parks, roadways, interruption of business and epidemic.

I would say that $250,000,000 was a very conservative estimate of the loss to France; it will more likely reach $400,000,000."

NEGRO FUGITIVE IS CAUGHT.

Charged With Killing a White Man Near Providence.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Feb. 2.—Brown Caudle, a negro, who killed a white man near Providence, Ky., in December, was captured here this morning and will be taken to Dixon tonight. Caudle admits the killing, but says it was a question of who could shoot first. He professes to be afraid of mob violence, and an effort will probably be made by his attorney to have him carried elsewhere than Dixon for safe keeping.

Welcome Words To Women

If you are an intelligent thinking woman, in need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to you that there is one tried and true honest square-deal medicine of known composition, sold by druggists for the cure of woman's ills. The makers of

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to print, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper. Is this not a significant fact worthy of careful consideration?

Women use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in preference to all other advocated medicines sold by druggists for their peculiar weaknesses and ailments because it is

THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs, is not anything like advertised secret compounds or patent medicines.

THE ONE REMEDY for women devised by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in woman's ailments and carefully adapted to her delicate organism.

THE ONE REMEDY good enough that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on its outside bottle-wrapper.

It's foolish—often dangerous to be over-persuaded into accepting a secret nostrum in place of this time-proven medicine of known composition. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

DEAD MAN WAS JOKER.

Bequeathed Property Which Was Found Not to Exist.

Tacoma, Wash., Feb. 3.—"Dead men tell no tales," but that they sometimes play practical jokes is attested by Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jones, of Portland, Me., who have arrived here after a fruitless trip to Ellensburg, Wash., to claim a bequest of real estate made to Mrs. Jones, in her brother's will. They could find no trace of the property described.

Mrs. Jones has recalled that her brother, who was William Tratham, was a great practical joker. He died last June, willing his brother and two sisters parcels of land in widely separated regions. Mrs. Jones' brother was bequeathed a tract in Florida and her sister a half section in Texas.

The will which was not opened until Christmas, directed the legatees to claim their lands without delay. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are waiting to hear from the "beneficiaries" who have gone south to investigate bequests.

HOUSEHOLD REMEDIES

which have stood the test of time deserve a place in the medicine chest of every family. Mothers are today administering to their children the remedies their grandmothers used.

For thirty years, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been curing the women of this country from the worst forms of female ills, and merit alone could have stood such a test of time and won such an enviable record.

OBNOXIOUS PROVISIONS.

Springfield, Feb. 2.—After a hot debate lasting over two hours the house by a vote of 100 to 39, most of the Shurtliff Republicans voting against passage.

Springfield, Feb. 2.—After the committee direct primary bill passed the house by a vote of 100 to 39, the commission form of municipal government bill ran a hot gauntlet of amendments and was advanced to third reading. The house passed the bill donating $100,000 to the Cherry Relief fund.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 2.—With Speaker Shurtliff's obnoxious provision that the commissioners shall be elected not less than 90 days after a city adopts the commission form of government retained and with Cliffield's amendment offered fixing the percentage for recall at 75, which makes it virtually prohibitory, and with another amendment tacked on that when the commission form of government has been lost in a city it can not be voted on for two years, the commission form of government enabling act was advanced to third reading by the house, and will be voted on today, in all probability, and passed.

Hamilton and others defended the bill. After the bill had been declared passed Hamilton moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed. This motion was tabled.

The vote by which the primary bill passed was as follows:

TAFT APPROVES
REVISED PROGRAM

MEASURES HE WANTS CONGRESS
TO ENACT.

"Insurgents" in Line to Help Push
Some of the Measures, and War
Will Not Interfere.

WHAT THE BILLS PROVIDE.

Washington, Feb. 3.—The administration program, revised by the leaders of the senate and house and given the stamp of white house approval, comprises the following legislation:

Statehood for Arizona and New Mexico in the form of a new state bill, which provides for the ratification by congress of the constitution of the new states after the approval by the president.

Postal savings banks, with safeguards against funds being transferred from the sections where they are originally deposited to money centers.

Authorizing the president to withdraw from every public lands desired for conservation purposes and for classification.

Federal incorporation, open to voluntary application of "concerns engaged in interstate business, and will allow to subscribe to the federal regulation.

Creating a court of commerce and amending the interstate commerce act.

Creating a legislative council for Alaska.

All the measures are designated to be enacted if the influence of Taft and the leaders in charge of the machinery of the senate and house are powerful enough to carry the program through. There is no indication of a division of Republicans along "insurgent" and "regular" lines, although individuals in both factions may oppose some features of the bills.

Later other measures may be added which are now deemed secondary.
Taft is inclined to come out strongly for the ship subsidy, and may urge a bill providing for certificates of indebtedness to the amount of $30,000,000 to raise money for reclamation work.

The Republican members of the senate committee on finance had a meeting today in advance of the regular session. Aldrich talked plainly about the party situation by reason of the opposition to certain platform pledges, endorsed unequivocally by Taft since he has assumed the presidency.

36,000,000 EGGS

IN THE COLD STORAGE NOW IN JERSEY CITY.

Alleged Conspiracy to Raise the Price of Poultry and Produce Charged.

New York, Feb. 3.—There are 36,- 000,000 eggs in one cold storage warehouse in Jersey City, according to information given to the grand jury in the investigation of packing and other concerns maintaining extensive warehouses on the New Jersey side of the Hudson. The eggs have been there since last March, it was learned, with 100,000 pounds of poultry stored since last April.

The managers of the Union Terminal Cold Storage company and officers of other refrigerating companies are summoned before the grand jury Friday.

If a conspiracy to raise prices is shown, indictments are likely to be returned against those responsible for holding meat, eggs and other foodstuffs in storage.

Young Men in the Commons.

In connection with the question which has arisen as to who is the youngest candidate at the present election, it may be recalled that in 1613 there were no fewer than forty gentlemen not more than 40, and some not exceeding 16, who had seats in the house of commons. Hat-sell in his "precedents" remarks that the poet Waller, among others, sat in parliament (1622) before he was 17 years of age. A statute of William III makes void the election of any person who is not 21 years of age, but members under age have been occasionally admitted notwithstanding the provisions of this act. Charles James Fox was returned and sat at the age of 19, but Chesterfield under similar circumstances, received from the ministry of the day, whom he had attacked, a hint that he must withdraw.—Westminster Gazette.

BIG INCREASE IN FARM PRODUCTS

PRESENT PRODUCTION WILL BE DOUBLED.

Scientific Methods Used—People of Kansas Not Worried About the High Cost of Living.

WILL CHARGE AS THEY PLEASE

Chicago, Feb. 3.—A doubling of the present production of farm staples is in sight, according to Prof.
B. C. Buffum, of Worland, Wyo., who is a pioneer in the science of seed breeding.

"We already have practically doubled the yield of corn by selection and plant breeding," said Prof.
Buffum yesterday, "but we need not stop with corn as we can deal with all other crops in a similar way. The reason that this has not been done earlier is that plant breeding has been utilized heretofore mainly for the production of curiosities. Men who brought out anything new were called 'wizards.' Few saw any practical value in what was being done.
Much was accomplished in an esthetic way with reference to improvements of flowers, but the great farm crops were neglected."

"As Mark Twain said in 'Puddin-head Wilson': 'Training is everything. The peach was once a bitter almond and cauliflower is nothing but cabbage with a college education.' Plant breeding supplies this 'college education' to the plebeians of the vegetable world, and therefore by increasing crop yields, promises more than anything else with reference to a growth of the world's permanent wealth."

KANSAS FARMERS HAPPY.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—"The cost of living is a secondary consideration to the people of Kansas," said Foster Dwight Coburn, secretary of the Kansas state board of agriculture, yesterday.

"Guess we'll have to plead guilty to the charge of doing pretty well," said Mr. Coburn, "but I don't see that the farmer is responsible for the high prices on necessities. I know if working early and late makes him deserve the prices he gets for his products that he deserves them, and if you are willing to pay 60 cents for corn he would be a chump to sell it for 30 cents."

"There must be some blame somewhere for the high cost of living.
But the farmer has never set the price on one of his products. He brings his steers to market and takes what is offered him. If he don't do this he must take his cattle home again, and that means bankruptcy."

"Out our way we're not worrying about it. We ride around in automobiles, and within the last week a farmer in the wheat belt paid $7,- 000 for an airship. But we're not crowding out the horses at that."

Horses were never such good property nor so highly esteemed as at present."

GRAY HAIRS BANISHED.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy and gradually restored the natural color. One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days on account of it souring quickly. This objection has been overcome and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur the public can get a superior preparation of sage, with the admixture of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow. It is sold by all drugists for 50¢ and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price for sale and recommended by W. J.
Gilbert, special agent.

UNIT BILL FIGHT SHIFTS TO HOUSE

HARDLY GET TO A VOTE BEFORE TWO WEEKS.

Dairymen Urge Enactment of Compulsory Tuberculin Test Law.

SUBSTITUTE TO BE PUSHED.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 3.—With the "knockouts" given the Vice and Watkins county unit local option bills in the senate, by their consignment to the tender mercies of the committee on religion and morals, where the "dry" advocates have every reason to believe they will slumber until the end of the session, attention is now attracted to the house, where the Waggoner bill, an identical measure, was favorably reported and received its first hearing.

While it is almost a foregone conclusion that the Waggoner bill will pass the lower branch by a safe margin if it reaches a vote, the measure is assured of a thorny path before it reaches that stage, with every impediment that can be devised thrown in its way by the opponents of local option extension. As the matter stands now, there are at least fifty measures ahead of it on the house calendar, and these, by the right of priority, must be disposed of before the Waggoner bill may claim the right of way.

To Fight for Substitute.

The opponents of the bill will make a strong effort to pass the substitute offered by the minority of the committee, which embraces the provisions of the model license law. The supporters of the substitute insist that what they have to offer is the only feasible measure before the general assembly in the interest of true temperance in that it places all drinking places under stringent regulations, while the present local option law, which is sought to be extended, has driven out the licensed saloon keeper only to let in the "blind tiger" and "bootlegger."

It is hardly probable that the Waggoner bill or the minority substitute will come up for passage in the house before two weeks, and it may be longer than that, as the opposition to all anti-liquor legislation has grown from a mere handful in the lower branch two years ago to respectable proportions, with the ability to put up a strong fight.

Agreed on Tuberculin Test.

Illinois Central.

Consolidation of the car department and the locomotive departments of the Illinois Central railroad under the head of superintendent of machinery will result in no successor being elected to succeed J. A. Baker, who resigned last week to accept a position with the Chicago Car Heating company. The railroad will return to the old plan, and R. W. Bell, who has been superintendent of the locomotive power, will be made superintendent of machinery, the position J. G. Neuffer held until several months ago. J. A. Borowdale, who was assistant to Mr. Baker, will remain as first assistant in the department. R. W. Bell has been with the railroad for many years, and his new position is a recognition of his ability.

Coach Jumps Track.

Fast passenger train, No. 103, was delayed 50 minutes this morning in the south yards. While pulling out of the yards a day coach was derailed, and it was nearly an hour before the coach was replaced on the rails. Nobody was hurt as the train was moving slowly when the accident happened.

The wrecker was called out to Gravel switch last night to replace engine, No. 291, on the track. The engine was on a sidetrack when she jumped the track.

Lost in the Woods.

Lost in the woods for several hours, a party of hunters returned to Paducah this morning at 4 o'clock exhausted after spending the night in the woods. Last night Fred West, W. H. Morrison, A. McCann, Paul West, Tom Copeland and Jake Adams, all employees in the round house, decided to catch a few ground hogs. They drove several miles out into the country, and then deserted the buggy. They wandered around until midnight looking for a clew, but failed to find a single ground hog. Then when started for the buggy, it could not be found. From midnight until 3 o'clock this morning they wandered around until at last, through the guidance of a farmer, the buggy was found. When they reached the city each took a solemn oath swearing off from hunting ground hogs.
